Wall Street, Saturday, April 4. The market displayed undoubted strength to-day, and was not affected even by the official announcement of the intended shipment of a small amount of gold next week. The formation of the soft steel pool that foilowed an advance in the price of Southern pig Iron; the flattering earnings of St. Paul and the advance of 1% per cent in wheat-all contributed to the strength of the market. Transactions were limited, but attempts to buy stocks found few offerings for sale. The Grangers advanced, in sympathy with St. Paul, and Tennessee Coal & Iron jumped 1% on the advance of 25 cents in the price of Southern pig iron.

Millions Suffering Who Might Be Cured-A Message of Hope.

Seven million people in the United States afflicted with Hernia (or rupture, as it is commonly called), suffering and disabled for the struggle of life, which must be kept up day by day at any cost to the physical system.

Some, fortunately, are relieved, so that the struggle is less agonizing; others abandon all efforts as futile and fall by the wayside, while the great army of human progress marches on. This has been a true condition of American life until intelligent research and experiment evolved The weekly statement of averages of the improved Elastic Truss Co.'s method of treatment and remarkable appliances.
